Rosebuds

Begin with ch15, with a long tail for sewing the rosebuds.

Ch2, 2 hdc in the 2nd st from the hook. 2 hdc in the next st Repeat between asterisks 4 times. (10 hdc altogether) 2 dc in next st. Repeat between asterisks 5 times. (10 dc altogether) Insert hook into stitch, yarn over hook 2 times and draw through a loop, (4 loops on hook), yarn over hook and draw through 2 loops on hook (3 loop remains on hook), yarn over hook and draw through the 3 loops. (1 loop remains on hook.) Insert hook into stitch, yarn over hook 2 times and draw through a loop, (4 loops on hook), yarn over hook and draw through 2 loops on hook (3 loop remains on hook), yarn over hook and draw through the 3 loops. (1 loop remains on hook.) Repeat between asterisks 5 times and now you are at the end of Ch15. Cut the yarn.

Thread the long tail from the beginning into a tapestry needle. Coil up the crocheted strip, beginning at the narrowest part. Sew the rose during coiling up, not to uncoil. You can make it looser or tighter, as you want. Sew it on the hat.

You can make rosebuds in other size beginning with longer or shorter chain line. Make 2 hdc in each st in the 1st third of the line, 2 dc in each st in the 2nd third of the line, and 2 crochet written above in each st in the 3rd third of the line.

Sew the rosebuds to the hat, weave in end.

Lot of thanks for DigiDemon on Ravelry for testing the pattern!
